J. G. CABLISH & BRO.

6 and 8 EAST THIRD STREET, MASONIC TEMPLE BUILDING.

A LUCKY MAN.

She was versed in French and German, She had picked up Spanish, too, And Italian—oh, she talked it As the dark Italians do. She had even learned some Russian, And a little Portuguese. As for Swedish, she could reel it Off as easy as you please. And her lucky husband daily, With a joy that—as sublime, Thanked the Lord that she could only Speak in one tongue at a time.

—Chicago Record-Herald.

There was one addition to the Christian Church at the prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

J. C. Cablish & Bro. have invested $135 in a new delivery wagon. It is a daisy and was built in this city.

Mr. Edward Slattery of Millersburg formerly of Mason county has sold his farm and moved to Paris, engaging in business.

Dr. J. R. Heflin of Newport came up Wednesday and assisted in instituting the Maysville Aeris of Eagles. He returned home yesterday.

The 39th Anniversary of the B. P. O. E. occurs on February 16th, next Saturday week. The occasion will be observed, no doubt, by the local Lodge.

Messrs. Shelby Blatterman and S. A. Shanklin and Squires Frazee and Luttrell were in the city yesterday attending a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Tobacco Warehouse Company.

Captain James Dunn, the popular L. and N. Conductor makes the following runs—Monday morning 5:40 Lexington and returns Tuesday afternoon 1:20 Stanford and return; Wednesday morning at 9:50; Thursday, Lexington and return; Friday, Stanford and returns Saturday and lays over until Monday, when the same schedule is resumed.

During the high water Miss Garnett Hauke of Forest avenue lost a handsome gold watch while crossing the L. and N. foot bridge over Limestone creek. At the time Miss Hauke was leaning over the railing watching an object in the river when the time piece became detached from its fastening on her bosom and disappeared in the murky water. Of course she never expected to see her treasure again, and was much overjoyed on its return to her the other day by a gentleman who had found it after the receding waters had left it exposed to view.

MONUMENTS.

NOTICE.

The Board of Control and subscribers to the Tobacco Growers' Warehouse stock are hereby notified to meet in the Courthouse tomorrow at 1 o'clock.

JOHN A. REED, Chairman.

MASON COUNTY

At the Jamestown Exposition All Should Boost the Project

The various counties in the state are responding in a noble and generous manner in raising their apportionment to the general fund for a State House at the Jamestown Exposition, and it is right and proper that they do so.

So far as Mason county is concerned there is not a particle of doubt but that she will contribute her share willingly and cheerfully. Maysville and the county is asked to raise $543.33 equally divided between them, and that both will respond with alacrity at the proper time goes without saying.

There is not a right thinking and well meaning citizen but would have Kentucky represented in a manner worthy of the grand old Commonwealth and abreast with other progressive states.

Mason countyans visiting the Exposition want a "Home" that they can point to with pride and one of which they will not be ashamed. People from all parts of the world will be there, and it is only right that Kentucky should be diked out in her best Sunday clothes.

Captain Thomas A. Keith has been appointed a Committee by the State Executive Board to attend to this matter, and he thought it best to seek the money from the Fiscal Court and the City Council, and in this way place the burden upon the many instead of a few.

Both of the above bodies are composed of intelligent men who will do the right thing, and in voting the necessary amounts will meet with the approval of all.

CITY MISSIONARIES

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reed To Take Up the Work

The following communication from the Pastors' Union of the city explains itself—

To our citizens: The Pastors' Union of the city having confidence in the Christian character and zeal of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Reed, recently of the Salvation Army, have encouraged them to undertake a city missionary work here.

We have no means to support this except what may be subscribed by the people of the city. We have, therefore, authorized them to solicit aid, the amounts received by them to be regularly reported to the Pastors' Union and their methods to be open to our review.

Many citizens of all classes have expressed the desire that some one be specially employed to visit the neglected classes in all parts of the town to minister to their suffering and to keep our Pastors and people posted as to worthy calls for help.

The success of this depends on the response to the canvass this week.

We beg all well wishers of our city to encourage this, which seems to us to be a Providential opportunity.

The work cannot be done by a few, however zealous.

FELIX K. STRUVE,
JOHN BARBOUR,
Committee.

The Big Sandy News, an expert on ginseng, says the fabulous prices once paid for this Chinese luxury are no longer paid, and that the demand for 'seng is rapidly falling off. Ginseng is only found in two other places besides this country, Japan and Manchuria. The Chinese have a great fondness for the herb, which they use in sickness. The palmy days of the ginseng digger are over in Kentucky.

"GEM" LINEN.

Linen sold under this trade mark approaches as closely as possible the old-fashioned methods of linen weaving. It is made of selected flax, is grass bleached, is spun, woven and finished without a particle of dressing. It's the only bleached table linen on the market with a soft kid glove finish. Many prudent buyers select unbleached table linen because its soft finish assures longer wear than bleached linen at the same price. Some women, however, demand snow-white damask in even the cheapest grades. Both points, hitherto divergent, meet in this beautiful, velvet-soft, heavy, pure white "Gem" damask at $1.25 yard. Six patterns, with Napkins to match.

THE Republican State Central Committee will meet at the Galt House in Louisville on Thursday afternoon, February 14th to decide upon a time and place for holding the convention to nominate candidates for state offices to be voted for at the November election. The convention will likely be called to meet in Louisville in May or June.

A WASHINGTON correspondent calls Senator FORAKER "bulldog of politics and a real scrapper from the ground up." FORAKER's fighting qualities as compared with THEODORE ROOSEVELT's are so "odious" that a 100 to 1 shot misses the correct ratio a mile. THEODORE is the veritable "Bosco who eats 'em alive" and when he licks his chops after devouring "Little Breaches," he wouldn't know whether he had eaten white meat, or dark meat with a Sambo flavor.

ANOTHER wrong has been righted. At Georgetown, Ohio, last week in the Common Pleas Judgeship contest case, Hon. G. BAMBACH of Ripley was declared legally elected over Judge MARKLEY by 23 votes. This election case was a peculiar one from the fact that in a rush campaign, Mr. BAMBACH himself, a staunch Republican, was nominated as a nonpartisan candidate against the incumbent, a Democrat and a Republican candidate. The race was one of the hottest, shortest and "most bitter ever run in the District and resulted in MARKLEY's claiming a victory and working boldly and brazenly every fraudulent means to retain the office. The frauds were so flagrant that 40 lawyers in the District opposed MARKLEY and the case carried to the Circuit Court where BAMBACH was declared the winner. The successful Judge is one of the most prominent German lawyers in the Ohio Valley and is a man of the most lovable disposition and spotless reputation. The Editor of THE LEDGER is more than pleased over Mr. BAMBACH's final victory because he selected us to edit and publish his campaign organ "The Sardinia Journal," of which we issued 10,000 copies in two weeks prior to the last November election, and the paper contained such an array of local facts that their promulgation assured his election.

ALL SPOKE THEIR MINDS.

Ears of the Late Ebenezer Must Have Tingled.

"Ebenezer Squeer wa'n't much," said Aunt Abigail. "If the Lord wanted him He's welcome, as far as I'm concerned. If He was callin' men accordin' to merit, Ebenezer would be waitin' a long time after some of the rest of us was taken. The Lord moves in mysterious ways and just why He wanted Ebenezer Squeer is one of 'em. But He's got him, whether He wanted him or not, and the association might as well pass resolutions of regret if it will make the burden any lighter for the widow.

The text of 'em was the hardest work we had to do. I drafted 'em first, but, when the association got through amendin' 'em, the original copy had to be rewrote. I began it, 'Whereas, our late lamented brother, Ebenezer Squeer, has been called to realms of everlastin' bliss,' etc. Melva Driggs moved to strike out the word 'lamented,' and that was struck out as a concession to the minority. Then Zerophy Wilkins moved to strike out all after 'called.' She said the statement about 'realms of everlastin' bliss,' was purely guesswork, with the chances agin' its bein' so. She moved to substitute, 'from fields of labor' for 'realms of everlastin' bliss,' makin' it read, 'Whereas, our late brother, Ebenezer Squeer, has been called from fields of labor,' Melvina Driggs wanted to know if Zerophy ever saw any field where Ebenezer Squeer had labored. She said such a resolution was a deliberate slur on every workin' person within the range of her voice, which is considerable when she is het up. She moved to strike out everything after 'called,' makin' it read, 'Whereas, the late Ebenezer Squeer has been called,' and as nobody could find anything to complain of in that sentiment, we let it stand at that.

"I'm free to confess, when we got 'em finally adopted, there wasn't much meat in 'em. I took a copy of 'em and they read:

"Whereas, the late Ebenezer Squeer has been called, and—Whereas, our beloved sister, Sophy Squeer, is left to mourn, and—Whereas the Woman's Charitable association realized that afflictions are only blessing in disguise, now, therefore—Be it resolved, that this association extends its regret and sympathy to Sister Sophy Squeer, an honored, beloved and respected member of this association, and that an engrossed copy of these resolutions be sent to Sister Squeer."—Success Magazine.

THANKFUL

To my many friends and the public generally who have in the past extended to me such a liberal share of their patronage, which has helped so materially in making my business career in Maysville such a success: I want to assure all that I fully appreciate what they have done for me, and promise that I shall, by renewed efforts, endeavor to retain the confidence of the public by pursuing the same course of fair dealing and polite attention in the future as in the past and selling the very best goods at the most reasonable prices.

My stock is now the largest and most varied it has ever been my pleasure to offer to the public, consisting of every article in the Staple and Fancy Grocery line. These goods are fresh and new and of the very best quality. My last shipment of New Crop Open Kettle Molasses is now in and they are strictly fancy, and in spite of the fact that prices on these goods have materially advanced I am still selling them at the very low price of 50c per gallon. My stock of CANNED GOODS is unusually large and the quality of the very best.

The demand for PERFECT FLOUR is rapidly growing because it is beyond a doubt the very best Flour sold in Maysville or that can be made. It has no superior anywhere.

The run on my fine Blended Coffees has been enormous and is constantly increasing. I am still selling these fine goods at 15c, 20c and 25c per pound, and if you want a strictly fancy high grade Mocha and Java, the finest that can be produced, don't fail to call for the famous "Barrington Hall" steel cut, sold only in one-pound airtight tins at 35c per pound. A fresh supply of fall catch crackling just in. If you want something extra try one of my fancy Bloater Meats, heads and tails off.

A big invoice of very fine Premium Chinaware just in, a sample of which may be seen in my warehouse window. These goods I give to my CASH customers in redeeming tickets given out with their cash purchases. Until further notice DOUBLE TICKETS will be given with each cash purchase on SATURDAYS. By taking advantage of this proposition the purchaser will very soon accumulate enough tickets to secure a fine set of China FREE OF COST.

I buy strictly fancy Table Butter, Fresh Eggs and Country Produce generally, for which I pay cash or trade at lowest cash prices. I want everyone to come and see me; always welcome. If you don't want to buy it will be a pleasure for me to show you the nicest, the cleanest and the best kept store in Northeastern Kentucky. Thanking all again, I am most sincerely,

THREE BOYS HAD ECZEMA OF HEAD

One Mother's Trials—Little Ones Treated at Dispensary for Three Months—Did Not Seem to Improve—Suffered Five Months.

ALL WERE PERFECTLY CURED BY CUTICURA

"My three children had eczema for five months. A little sore would appear on the head and seemed very itchy, increasing day after day. The baby had had it about a week when the second boy took the disease and a few sores developed, then the third boy took it. For the first three months I took them to the N— Dispensary, and they told me that the children had ringworm, but they did not seem to improve. Then I heard of the Cuticura Remedies, and I thought I would write you about my case, and when I got the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment I bathed the children's heads with warm water and Cuticura Soap and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. In a few weeks they had improved, and when their heads were well you could see nothing of the sores. I should be very glad to let others know about the great Cuticura Remedies. ## OLD FOLKS TESTIFY

The Aged and All Sons and Daughters of Aged People in Maysville Should Be Interested.

For some time our local druggist, Mr. JOHN C. PECOR, has been recommending to all aged people of Maysville his cod liver preparation, Vinol, to be the best strength creator in the world for old people. To all such the following will be of interest:

Mr. A. J. Barker, of Evansville, Ind., writes: "There is no other medicine in the world equal to Vinol for elderly people. I would not take a thousand dollars for the good it has done me."

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom, of Chicago, Ill., writes: "Vinol is a Godsend to old people. I am 76 years old but I feel active and well today, thanks to the vitalizing effects of Vinol."

Mr. Joseph Banks, Decatur, Ill., writes: "I am in my 78th year, and owing to the cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, I feel better and stronger than I have for years."

Vinol is not a patent medicine, but is a real cod liver preparation from which the useless, indigestible oil has been eliminated and tonic iron, a needful constituent for the blood, added.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, makes rich, red blood, healthy body material, and sound, steady nerves. In this way it repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline of the aged, builds up the run down, tired and debilitated, and never fails to replace weakness with strength.

If it fails we return to the purchaser every dollar paid for it. JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

NOTE—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Maysville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

Joe Litzinger of the Minerva neighborhood sold 15,000 pounds of tobacco to the American Tobacco Company at 10 cents, and W. T. King got 8 cents for his crop of about 12,000 pounds.

Congressman Bennett has introduced bills for the relief of Joseph A. Mayer, John J. McGann, Richard Stewart and Susan Kennard; also bills granting increase of pension to William H. Frank, J. P. Patton and Jasper Casey.

Dr. Harry Yancey of Carlisle will move to Mayslick March 1st.

After July 1st Louisville carpenters will only work eight hours a day.

The Kentucky Distillers will meet at the Galt House in Louisville, February 14th.

William Verooy has taken a position with the N. and W. Railroad at Bluefields, W. Va.

The franchise tax on the Banks in Nicholas county has been fixed at 70 cents on the dollar.

Elder F. M. Tindler, formerly of Mayslick, but now Pastor of the Christian Church at Lancaster, has accepted a call to Iola, Kansas.

Mrs. Mary A. Stealey died Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. M. Teagar, at Flemingsburg, in the eighty-fifth year of her age.

Mr. Thomas A. Davis is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Davis and niece, Miss Mollie T. Edmonds, who are now sojourning in San Antonio, Texas, in which they say they are charmingly situated in that balmy climate. American Beauty and Marshal Neil roses bloom on every hand while strawberries are an every day luxury. In Maysville icicles hang from every roof and tree and snowballs bloom in every front yard.

Mr. Kelly and his company presented "The Land of the Midnight Sun" to a fair-sized audience at the Washington last night. The play was well produced, the company's new people showing up well. The Pepper Twins, who were to join Mr. Kelly here, were in the big fire over at Charlottesville and lost their entire effects and wardrobe. Tonight "The Sunset Mine" will be produced. The company will give a big matinee tomorrow afternoon, at which the prices will be 10 and 20 cents.

Mary Russell, the colored cook at the railroad camp below the city yesterday made a bluff at "shuffling off this mortal coil" by the carbolic acid route, and being foiled in the attempt vented her spleen on her husband by taking a shot at him with a revolver.

On two other occasions she tried to sever his head from his body with a big butcher knife. Mary is a ranktankerous termagant that needs caging or a straight-jacket.

She was arrested and jailed and will be arraigned before Judge Whitaker this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

The gage marks 24.9 and falling.

The rivers at headwaters are filled with floating ice.

On account of the rough weather there has been no Cincinnati-Pittsburg packet this week.

The Queen City will not make the Mardi Gras trip to New Orleans, having broken her shaft.

The Alice Brown and the Harvester, with twenty-two barges each, have started from Pittsburgh.

The towboat Wilmot has been sold by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company to the Holcomb Hayes Company of Paducah. The towboat will be overhauled at the Point Pleasant docks and will then be placed in the Tennessee river to tow ties.

The lid is on good and tight on the lower river packets now, thanks to one good woman, the wife of Captain James H. Henderson, President of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company. There has not been a bar on any P. and C. boats for more than fifteen years past. Captain Gordon C. Green, of the Greene Line, never allowed a bar on any boat he ever owned.

OUR PRIDE

IS IN THE
WORK HARNESS

Department of our store. By giving special attention to the most minute details we turn out Harness whose longevity rivals that of the Deacon's wonderful one-horse shay, which, as you all know, was so wonderfully constructed that it did not wear out in any one particular place, but, after being used for one hundred years to the minute, went to pieces all at once. Our workmen, being skilled at their work, know, as did the Deacon, that "Tis mighty plain that the weakest place must stand the strain, 'n the way it fix it, uz I maintain, is only jes' to make that place uz strong uz the rest." We can give you the names of some of our customers to whom we sold work harness when we first went into business, and which is still as good as new. Do you not think this is full value received for every cent invested?

FOLLY AS IT FLIES

HOW ONE MOTH WAS DRAWN FROM THE BRIGHT LIGHT.

Gay Young Rounder Needed Only to Have His Feet Set in the Right Direction and the Plain Path.

Setemup didn't draw any dividends from bowling alleys, saloons, or theaters; but he was a free spender, and made welcome by all the proprietors of such places.

One day Setemup got moody and sad. His clothes were glossy, and since he couldn't be relied on to do good work because he stayed out late at nights and often came to work with a bad headache, he had not been promoted for 18 months. Further, Setemup was penniless and owed a three weeks' board bill.

Setemup began to think. Thought produced action, and he went to see a wise old uncle who often gave him good advice, and had on one occasion rescued him out of the hands of some relentless loan sharks.

"How now?" said the uncle. "Why so sad?"

"I'm nearly down and out," was the reply. "I can't keep good habits, somehow, and I can't save."

His relation scratched his head and pondered for a few minutes. Then he said, "I like you because you have the elements of a man in you. I'll help you by giving you an inducement to save your money. For every dollar you bring me inside the next two years I'll add half a dollar. It'll cost me some money, but I guess it will be worth it."

Fired by the ambition of making such easy money, Setemup neglected his old haunts at the bowling alleys, the saloons, and the theaters. Inside a month he brought his uncle a few dollars, which the old man promised to put carefully away for him and add the percentage promised. And he kept on bringing his uncle all the money he could spare.

The habit of saving and the virtues it necessitated soon showed itself in his appearance. His clothing was good and well kept. His eyes were bright and healthy. What most pleased him was the fact that he began to be advanced regularly, and before the two years were up he had become assistant to the head of a big department.

At the close of the two years Setemup went to his uncle to draw his money. The sum was so large that he protested the old man had been adding more than he should.

"Are you satisfied?" was the query. "Perfectly," was the reply. "I never expected nearly so much."

"Well, I'll be honest with you. The money just handed to you represents your savings alone with accrued interest. Lately I've met with some reverses, and am unable to add my proportion; but I will later.

"In this world," said the uncle, "habits are the real giant forces for good or evil. I simply helped you to establish one good habit, and lo! like magic, all the rest of the virtues followed in its train. The forming of one good habit and sticking to it often will help a man to make good headway in a manner faster than he could imagine in his wildest dreams."

Happy Solution.

"My dear," said the bridegroom, the day after they had returned from their wedding journey. "I have a suggestion to make that I think will work to our mutual satisfaction and benefit."

"Now, John, darling," said the bride preparing to weep at the slightest excuse "remember, I never said I could cook."

"Don't worry; it isn't about your cooking. It is about the letters you write and ask me to mail. It strikes me that we might be happier."

"If I didn't write to anyone? Oh, John, how—"

"Wait until I have finished, my dear. All I want to suggest is that you mail your own letters, so I won't be forever forgetting them, and in return for so doing that I will sew all my buttons on. By doing so it seems to me we will overcome two obstacles to married happiness that have caused trouble since buttons and letters were invented."

And the little bride, having checked her tears, agreed to try the plan.—Judge.

Caught.

The big fish which got away was caught in our reservoir today at the National Military home in Ohio. This is the first one on record recaptured.

Our champion angler was fishing for bass and caught a small one, then rebaited his hook with a lively minnow and made another cast, when, in his own words, there was a rush of the big fish for the bait, the quick pull to fasten hook, the broken line and the oft-told story repeated—the fish got away with part of the line and float attached. The float indicated the motions and position of the fish as he tried to get rid of the hook, and many anglers and friends of the unfortunate fisherman offered suggestions and helped to recapture the struggling bass, one offering to carry a skiff from an adjoining lake and go out after him. Finally the fish approached the shore near enough to cast a line over him and fasten in the broken line. The crowd on shore awaited the result with excited, eager attention as the fish was brought to net and safely landed. When weighed the indicator pointed to six ounces.—Forest and Stream.

The time for hearing in the Supreme Court of the United States of the demurrer in the case of Virginia vs. West Virginia, involving the debt of the former state, has been changed from March 4th to March 11th, to accommodate John G. Carlisle, who appears for West Virginia.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of the accused murderer of Stanford White, told her story on the witness stand yesterday and recited the facts of her connection with White in a matter of fact manner. She was born on Christmas Day 1884, and first met White in 1901. Jerome will cross examine her today and, afterward Harry's mother will take the stand. Thaw's acquittal is now expected to follow soon.

Many hitherto unpublished letters by Lady Mary Wortley Montagu will appear in a new memoir of that famous eighteenth century woman, whose letters are among the best in English literature, about to appear in London. These unpublished letters are printed from the Wortley Manuscripts at Sandon Hall, by permission of the Earl of Harrowby.

The smallest book ever printed has just been published by the Salmin Bros., in Padua. It measures only ten by six millimeters—about three eighths by one quarter of an inch. Each page has nine lines, and though the print is extremely small it is clear and legible to good eyesight. This tiny booklet contains a hitherto unpublished letter from Galileo to Christina of Lorena.

a pretty face, a good figure, but sooner or later learn that the healthy, happy, contented woman is most of all to be admired.

Women troubled with fainting spells, irregularities, nervous irritability, backache, the "blues," and those dreadful dragging sensations, cannot hope to be happy or popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible.

The cause of these troubles, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs. It acts at once upon the organ afflicted and the nerve centers, dispelling effectually all those distressing symptoms. No other medicine in the country has received such unqualified endorsement or has such a record of cures of female ills as has

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Emma Runtzler, of 631 State St., Schenectady, N. Y., writes:—"For a long time I was troubled with a weakness which seemed to drain all my strength away. I had dull headaches, was nervous, irritable, and all worn out. Chancing to read one of your advertisements of a case similar to mine cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it and I cannot express my gratitude for the benefit received. I am entirely well and feel like a new person."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all forms of Female Complaints, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and is invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Correspondence

MOUNT GILEAD.

Mr. William Bramel and family have moved back from Indiana to take charge of his father's business. His father, Mr. Alex Baamel being old and feeble.

A Court of Equity for the farmers is now admitted to be in sight, slowly but surely on the way, though it seems dim to some, it is so sure, as the scripture says in regard to our resurrection, "we see through a glass darkly, it doth not yet appear &c, that we must admit according to God's decree that "what is to be will be."

In thus agreeing, disappointments do not weigh so heavily on our minds, and after we have done the best we know, we should let the past go by and with a clinging faith have hopes for the future. There is a time for all things. God reigns.

Our Equity Union meets often, sometimes twice a week, but now only for pleasure interchanging ideas while waiting events. Though handicapped in every way it being the last union organized with only eight members, gotten up in two hours having to fix up our own papers with no literature or buttons &c., we reported in due time 29 members and nearly all the tobacco signed and 73 shares of stock.

Now the rest of you come up with as good showing and we will be solid.

BERNARD.

Miss Anna Brodt is somewhat improved.
Miss Bessie King is visiting relatives in Hamilton, O.

Mrs. Richard Sowards is reported to be critically ill.

Rev. Harrop was visiting Mr. John Brodt and family the past week.

Mr. William Jarvis purchased a fine team of horses, at the handsome price of $400.

Mr. William Cabler delivered his crop of tobacco of about 8,000 pounds, at 10 cents per pound.

Mr. Abram Cracraft delivered his crop of tobacco last week, about 7,000 pounds, at 8 cents per pound.

Mr. Sam Kubel gave a party last week, which was well attended by the young folks. After several hours of enjoyable time they were served with a nice treat.

Sheriff James Mackey is laid up with a severe cold.

Attorney Allan D. Cole has been at Vanceburg this week on legal business.

John M. Bremen, a prominent Attorney of Paris, and Miss Fannie May Hamilton of Mt Sterling were married Wednesday.

Miss Grace Beyeradorfer, formerly of Ripley, has been appointed manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company's business at Evans-ton, Ill.

The Rev. John Nesbitt, once Chaplain of the Kentucky Legislature, and identified with Southern educational institutions, died Wednesday at Rockford, Ill.

Mr. Gus Gerhard and Miss Jennie Cheek both of Bracken county, were married last October at Augusta, and their wedding has just been announced to their friends.

The Dover News says a Postoffice Inspector visited the Minerva Postoffice Tuesday and will recommend that the star route between Minerva and Maysville be discontinued and that all Minerva mail be delivered from Dover by the rural mail carrier. The star route from Maysville has been a great convenience to the Minerva people on account of giving them a bus line to that point.

Weather indications are, warmer with snow or rain.

Robert Anderson, a car inspector, aged 35, was killed in the L. and N. yards at Paris Wednesday.

An important meeting of the Men's Club of the Christian Church will be held at the Church this evening at 7 o'clock, and every member of the organization is expected to be present.

Robert Breckinridge died Wednesday night at his home in Lewisburg of pneumonia, after an illness of one week. He leaves a wife and two children. The funeral arrangements have not been completed.

PIMPLES

"I tried all kinds of blood remedies which failed to do me any good but I have found the right thing at last. My face was full of pimples and blackheads. After taking Cascarets they all left. I am continuing the use of them and recommending them to my friends. I feel fine when I rise in the morning. Hope to have a chance to recommend Cascarets."

While the earth is snowclad and Jack Frost is King it is a very poor time to make repairs on the outside of buildings, but no better time could be selected for repairing the inside. ## TIME IS THE TEST.

The Testimony of Maysville People Stands the Test.

The test of time is what tells the tale. The public soon finds out when misrepresentations are made, and merit alone will stand the test of time.

Maysville people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

George N. Crawford, blacksmith and wheelwright at Second and Lee streets, and living at 216 Lee street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"In the spring of 1900 I gave a testimonial telling what Doan's Kidney Pills had done for me, and I am pleased to say I can just as warmly recommend this remedy now as I did then. No other medicine ever gave me such prompt and positive relief from backache and kidney trouble as Doan's Kidney Pills. I believe them to be by far the best remedy for the kidneys there is. Sufferers from such troubles ought to give it a trial.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
